

Valley Transit

Reduced Fare Certification

for Seniors and Riders with Disabilities

ELIGIBILITY

Riders who are age 65 and over, or who have been certified as having a disability which causes them significant difficulty in using the bus, are eligible for a discounted fare when using Valley Transit buses. Riders with disabilities can be certified for this program if they have difficulty with one or more of the following:

- » Getting on a standard transit bus
- » Standing in a moving bus
- » Hearing or understanding oral instructions by the driver*
- » Seeing or understanding informational signs*

* Language illiteracy or the inability to speak, read or understand English due to non-English speaking country of origin is not a qualifying disability.

IDENTIFICATION

When paying the reduced cash fare or using a reduced fare ticket or pass, riders should be ready to present one of the following forms of identification to their bus driver, upon request:

- » Valley Transit Reduced Fare Card
- » Medicare Card
- » ADA Eligibility Card

No other forms of identification are accepted. Riders do not need to show identification to purchase pre-paid tickets or passes.
